

Performing Arts

Entry Level, Level 1, Level 2

Performing Arts is offered in a wide range of ways at Treloar College:

- as a whole course
- as part of a recognised course programme
- as a number of extra curricular activities

We have professional standard facilities and highly qualified and experienced staff who will ensure you are able to achieve your potential in this area of interest and study.

Facilities

Treloar College has a wide variety of facilities and technical equipment to support your performance studies, including professionally-equipped, versatile and wheelchair-accessible hall, stage, recording studio and radio station.

Performing Arts at Treloar College includes:

- drama
- movement
- music

Performance studies aim to help you develop personal skills by:

- encouraging your use of imagination
- developing creativity skills

- problem solving through drama
- extending your communication skills and self-advocacy
- increasing your self-confidence
- helping you learn to work as a member of a team

In the classroom

Drama

Practical drama work may cover:

- drama games
- improvisations
- scripted work
- character development
- voice skills
- rehearsals
- performances on- and off-site

Movement

Expression through movement is offered through a variety of dance workshops

Music

Music at Treloar College incorporates:

- group music sessions
- individual music lessons
- vocal training and singing
- use of percussion instruments
- developing rhythm and timing skills
- basic music theory
- music appreciation and listening skills

Behind the scenes

Other facets of performance studies you may wish to explore include:

- prop and set production
- costume planning and creation
- stage management
- front of house work
- advertising and publicity
- technical skills related to lighting and sound

A broader understanding

You will also have the opportunity to:

- learn about the historical development of performance
- explore job roles

- identify and follow health and safety requirements in the industry
- plan and create original performances
- develop reviewing, analytical and appreciation skills

Outside the classroom

The college encourages participation in various after-college activities including the college rock band, LAMDA (London Academy of Music and Dramatic Art) examinations, dance club, theatre visits, performance in -and attendance at - the College Arts Week and many other exciting opportunities to enjoy performing arts in a wider context.

Programmes of study

We offer a range of performing arts classes and courses. Some of these are designed to allow you to develop your interest in performing arts; others are examined and lead to qualifications.

Qualifications in performing arts are offered from Entry Level E2 to Level 2, with the opportunity to take higher level courses at Alton College.

Entry requirements

There are no set entry requirements; your acceptance on a course is through an assessment of your interest and aptitude.