

Progression Example

Alison impressed at interview and was appointed to the Assistant Management Accountant post. She had already started studying the CIMA qualification and Treloar’s supported her to continue this while working in her role. Under the guidance of senior members of the finance team, Alison developed her skills and knowledge and in 2017 was promoted to Management Accountant.

“When I was promoted I received all the support, advice and training I needed which allowed me to gain confidence which showed I was more than ready for the move up the career ladder. The support came from a number of departments which shows a real sense of team work.”
