Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

1. Policy/ Procedure Aim –

This policy outlines the Joint Council for Qualifications (JCQ) awarding bodies requirements of education providers for access arrangements and reasonable adjustments.

- It describes the principles Treloar's must follow as a Centre
- The type of access arrangement our students can apply for
- The key responsibilities of staff within the organisation
- Outlines the process flow
- It provides internal and external deadlines which relate when applying for access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

2. Definitions:

2.1 Access Arrangements

Access arrangements are agreed before an assessment. They allow candidates/learners with specific needs such as special educational needs, disabilities or temporary injuries to:

• access the assessment; show what they know and can do without changing the demands of the assessment.

The intention behind an access arrangement is to meet the particular needs of an individual disabled candidate without affecting the integrity of the assessment. Access arrangements are the principal way in which awarding bodies comply with the duty under the Equality Act 2010 to make 'reasonable adjustments'.

Centres are allowed to provide a supervised rest break to a candidate where it is his/her normal way of working within the centre. The duration of the break is decided by the SENCo before an examination series begins and the length of this must be recorded and set in advance. The SENCo will produce written evidence to confirm the need for supervised rest breaks to a JCQ inspector on request. For GCSE's the SENCo must sign and date a file note on headed paper confirming the need for the candidate to have a rest break. This must confirm the nature of the candidate's impairment.

The SENCo must always consider if supervised rest breaks would be more appropriate before making an application for extra time.

There is no maximum time set for supervised rest breaks. The decision must be made by the SENCo based on their knowledge of the candidate's needs and the candidate's normal way of working when placed under timed conditions. Consider in advance of the examination(s) how many breaks a candidate might need and the approximate duration of the supervised rest break. This will allow sufficient staff to be available to facilitate the rest break.

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

The centre must be satisfied that the candidate has an impairment which has a substantial and long term adverse effect, giving rise to persistent and significant difficulties. (The candidate is disabled within the meaning of the Equality Act.)

The SENCo must be satisfied that there is a genuine need for the arrangement on account of:

- Cognition and learning needs;
- Communication and interaction needs;
- A medical condition;
- Sensory and physical needs;
- Social, mental and emotional needs.

In addition, the candidate's difficulties must be established within the centre_and thus known to a Form Tutor or Teacher, the SENCo and/or a senior member of staff with pastoral responsibilities.

2.2 Reasonable Adjustments

The Equality Act 2010 requires an awarding body to make reasonable adjustments where a candidate, who is disabled within the meaning of the Equality Act 2010, would be at a substantial disadvantage in comparison to someone who is not disabled. The awarding body is required to take reasonable steps to overcome that disadvantage. An example would be a Braille paper which would be a reasonable adjustment for a visually impaired person who could read Braille.

A reasonable adjustment for a particular person may be unique to that individual and may not be included in the list of available access arrangements.

Whether an adjustment will be considered reasonable will depend on a number of factors which will include, but are not limited to:

- the needs of the disabled candidate/learner;
- the effectiveness of the adjustment;
- the cost of the adjustment; and
- the likely impact of the adjustment upon the candidate and other candidates.

An adjustment will not be approved if it:

- involves unreasonable costs to the awarding body;
- involves unreasonable timeframes; or
- affects the security and integrity of the assessment.

This is because the adjustment is not "reasonable".

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access

arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

In most cases it will not be reasonable for adjustments to be made to assessment objectives within a qualification. To do so would likely undermine the effectiveness of the qualification in providing a reliable indication of the knowledge, skills and understanding of the candidate. There is no duty to make adjustments which the qualifications regulators have specified should not be made.

3. Principles Treloar's must follow as a Centre

The purpose of an access arrangement is to ensure, where possible, that barriers to assessment are removed for a disabled candidate preventing them from being placed at a substantial disadvantage as a consequence of persistent and significant difficulties.

The integrity of the assessment is maintained, whilst at the same time providing access to assessments for a disabled candidate.

Although access arrangements are intended to allow access to assessments, they cannot be granted where they will compromise the assessment objectives of the specification in question.

Candidates may not require the same access arrangements in each specification. Subjects and their methods of assessments may vary, leading to different demands of the candidate. The need for access arrangements should be considered on a subject-by-subject basis.

Access arrangements should always be processed at the start of the course having firmly established a picture of need and normal way of working. Candidates will then know what is available and have the access arrangement(s) in place for examinations and controlled assessments/coursework. Arrangements must be approved before an examination or assessment.

The arrangement(s) put in place must reflect the support given to the candidate in the centre, e.g.

- in the classroom; or
- working in small groups for reading and/or writing; or
- literacy support lessons; or
- literacy intervention strategies; and/or
- in internal school tests and mock examinations.

This is commonly referred to as 'normal way of working'. For candidates with learning difficulties this is typically the background information recorded with Section A of Form 8.

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

Learners should be fully involved in any decisions about adjustments and or adaptions

As subjects vary, leading to different demands of the candidate, support may be needed in just one or two subjects; another candidate may need support in all their subjects. The key principle is that the specialist assessor can show a history of support and provision. The arrangement is not suddenly being granted to the candidate at the time of their examinations.

The SENCo and/or the specialist assessor must work with teaching staff, support staff and exams office personnel to ensure that approved access arrangements are put in place for internal school tests, mock examinations and examinations.

The candidate must have had appropriate opportunities to practice using the access arrangement(s) before their first examination, e.g. a computer reader, past awarding body modified enlarged papers, a scribe or speech recognition technology.

If a candidate has never made use of the arrangement granted to them, e.g. 25% extra time or supervised rest breaks, then it is not his/her normal way of working. The SENCo may consider withdrawing the arrangement provided that candidate will not be placed at a substantial disadvantage (The SENCo would have monitored the use of the arrangement in internal school tests and mock examinations.)

Treloar's must ensure that in controlled assessment or coursework marked by teachers, credit is given only for skills demonstrated by the candidate working independently.

Access arrangements must not compromise assessment requirements.

Where a person is appointed to facilitate an access arrangement, i.e.

- a communication professional
- a practical assistant
- a prompter
- a Language Modifier
- a reader
- a scribe

They are responsible to the Head of Centre and must be acceptable to the Head of Centre. The person appointed must not normally be the candidate's own subject teacher or relative, friend or peer of the candidate.

The Head of Centre must ensure that the person appointed is appropriately trained and understands the rules of the particular access arrangement(s), as detailed in this document. The person appointed must be a responsible adult.

Failure to comply with the regulations contained in the JCQ Guidelines has the potential to constitute malpractice which may impact on the candidate's result(s).

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access

arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

Failure to comply is defined as:

- putting in place access arrangements that are not approved; or
- permitting access arrangements within the centre which are not supported by the required evidence as per these regulations; or
- not putting in place appropriate arrangements for candidates with known and established learning difficulties/disabilities.

Failure to comply with the regulations has the potential to constitute malpractice which may impact on the candidate's result(s).

The documentation available for inspection by JCQ must be stored by the SENCo.

4. Types of Access Arrangements

The access arrangements listed below apply to the following qualifications:

- AQA Applied General qualifications
- AQA Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3 Technical qualifications
- BTEC Firsts
- BTEC Nationals
- BTEC Tech Awards
- Cambridge Nationals
- Cambridge Technicals
- City & Guilds Level 2 & Level 3 Technical qualifications
- Entry Level Certificate qualifications
- Free Standing Mathematics qualifications (FSMQ)
- Functional Skills
- GCE (AS and A Levels)
- GCSE
- OCR Level 3 Certificates
- Welsh Baccalaureate qualification (WBQ)
- WJEC Entry Pathways
- WJEC Level 1 & 2 General qualifications
- WJEC Level 1 & 2 Vocational qualifications
- WJEC Level 3 Applied qualifications

(where permitted by the specification).

The principle is the same across all qualification types: access arrangements must not be allowed to interfere with the integrity of the assessment or to give credit for skills, knowledge and understanding which cannot be demonstrated by the candidate.

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

4.1 Cognition and Learning Needs

E.g. General and/or Specific Learning Difficulties

The candidate must have an impairment in their first language which has a substantial and long term adverse effect. A candidate does not have a learning difficulty simply because their first language is not English, Irish or Welsh.

Candidates with learning difficulties may require for example:

- Supervised rest breaks
- Extra time
- A computer reader or a reader
- Read aloud or an examination reading pen
- A word processor
- A scribe
- A prompter
- A practical assistant
- Coloured overlays
- Coloured/enlarged papers
- Modified language papers

4.2 Communication and Interaction Needs

E.g. Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD), Speech, Language and Communication Needs (SLCN)

Candidates with communication and interaction difficulties may require for example:

- Supervised rest breaks
- Extra time
- A computer reader or a reader
- Read aloud or an examination reading pen
- Modified language papers
- A word processor
- A scribe.
- A Communication Professional

4.3 Sensory and Physical Needs

E.g. Hearing Impairment (HI), Multi-Sensory Impairment (MSI), Physical Disability (PD), Vision Impairment (VI)

Policy/Procedure Name: Examinations – Adjustments for candidates with disabilities and learning difficulties – Access

arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Policy/Procedure No: SMT061

Candidates with sensory and physical needs may require for example:

- Supervised rest breaks
- Extra time
- A computer reader or a reader
- Read aloud or an examination reading pen
- A word processor
- A scribe
- A live speaker
- A Sign Language Interpreter
- A practical assistant
- Braille papers, modified enlarged and/or modified language papers.

4.4 Social, Mental and Emotional Needs+

E.g. Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD), Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD), Mental Health Conditions

Candidates with social, mental and emotional needs may require for example:

- Supervised rest breaks
- A prompter
- Separate invigilation within the centre
- Alternative site arrangement
- Extra time
- A word processor
- A computer reader or a reader
- Read aloud or an examination reading pen
- A scribe.

The candidate must have an impairment in their first language which has a substantial and long term adverse effect. A candidate does not have a learning difficulty simply because their first language is not English, Irish or Welsh.

A diagnosis of ADD or ADHD should trigger the centre to undertake a broad assessment of the candidate's speed of processing. A candidate with ADHD may also have co-occurring persistent and significant specific learning difficulties.

Clinical letters referring to a diagnosis of ADD or ADHD may not include reference to these co-occurring difficulties. Centres should therefore always consider associated cognition and learning needs.

- For students completing examinations at Alton College, the Exams Officer would ensure the above information is provided to the Alton College Exams Coordinator. There will be ongoing liaison between the Exams Officer and the Alton College Exams Coordinator. If the specialist assessor has carried out an assessment for students who are completing GCSE/ GCE qualification and they are not qualified psychologists or specialist teachers holding a SpLD Assessment practicing certificate the Exams office would register.

Alton College Co-ordinator

- The Alton College Coordinator will ensure the Treloar's SENCo is fully informed in line with the deadline dates in section 7 of any applications required for access arrangements which are going through the Alton College examination office. This will ensure that the Treloar's Exams Officer can provide the Alton College Exams Officer with all the supporting documentation and arrange for an Education Physiologist assessment for Alton College students where required.

6. Flow Diagram of process

Teacher identifies that a student requires adjustments to be made

Access arrangements and reasonable adjustments

Teacher discusses with the student any reasonable adjustments or adaptions they need

Teacher informs the SENCo

If an Education Physiologist or assessor is involved and agrees with the recommendation they will provide the assessment evidence to the SENCo. The SENCo will complete Form 9 located in Appendix 1. On some occasions a Form 8 will need to be completed. Copies of all external application forms can be found on: http://www.jcq.org.uk/exams-office/access-arrangements-and-special-consideration/forms

This evidence will be filed by the SENCo, with the support of the Exams Officer along with a letter from the GP and a copy of their Pen portrait/Enabling Portfolio and their Statement or EHCP

The SENCo will send the Data protection form to the student for them to sign via their teacher/tutor. If they are unable to sign the form themselves their Student Support Assistant can sign it on their behalf with the students' consent

On direction of the SENCo, the Exams Officer will then apply for the access arrangements/reasonable adjustments using the appropriate method/mode – as stated in the JCQ guidelines

The awarding body may come back to the Exams Officer requesting further information. This would be sought by the Exams Officer and provided to the Awarding Body

Nata

Access arrangements online will automatically reject applications where it is proposed that multiple timetable variations will be required during the examination series. The centre must then make an online referral.
